1. On 1 August 1952 a Kwangsi cadre training committee was organized jointly by the Chinese Communist Kwangsi Party Committee and the Kwangsi Government. The training committee will establish a number of training schools on the provincial level and plans to train 200,000 basic cadre members during the period from mid-1952 to the beginning of spring planting in 1953. One hundred and twenty thousand cadre members who have been assigned to party organization work will be drawn from the chu (0575) and hsiang (6763) levels. Thirty thousand will be drawn from cooperatives and mutual-aid associations, and fifty thousand will be selected from economic and financial fields for training.
2. The training of cadre personnel under this program began on 15 August. The length of training in most cases will be one month, although the period may vary with the type of training given. The following classes are now in progress:
